
The Warning will be a frightening event for many, when it will seem as if the world has come to an end.

July 12, 2012

My dearly beloved daughter, let no man underestimate the impact the Warning will have on all of humanity.

The Warning will be a frightening event for many, when it will seem as if the world has come to an end.

Many will witness what will be seen as a catastrophic event when two comets will appear to collide and explode near the Earth's surface.

The flames of fire will look like a volcano has erupted into the sky and many will be frightened.

The rays of red fire are the rays of My Blood, the rays of My Mercy, given to you as a gift of such magnitude that no human being will be able to comprehend what is happening.

Many will feel a fire burning through their whole body as if the heat of the sun overwhelms them.

Inwardly they will feel a burning heat until the sense of consciousness enables them to witness the spectacle of their souls.

Many will feel the earth shake as if there were an earthquake.

The ground will tremble, groan and many will fall down, clinging to whatever they can for shelter.

But the ground will not open up and swallow them up. For this is not a physical earthquake but a supernatural one.

Before this happens, the weather patterns will be broken.

My cross will appear in the sky after the explosion.

Many will weep bitter tears of repentance and sorrow and will suffer the pain of humiliation because of their sins.

Others will scream and curse because they will not be able to bear the enlightenment, a divine gesture, because of the darkness in their souls and they will resist the light of My Mercy.

They will roar in the agony of the fires of hell because My gesture of Mercy will show them the fate that awaits them unless they repent and change their course.

Those good souls who love Me will also suffer, for many of them will also be covered in sin, but they will be forgiven instantly. They too will be humbled when they are shown their sins of pride.

Many will remain indoors for several days afterwards and many will have to fend for themselves due to the lack of services. That is why you must prepare.

It will also be a period of suffering where souls will suffer the pain of the fire of the Holy Spirit as their purification takes place. In this way, many will experience a revelation of the condition of their souls and be humbled in a way they have never experienced before.

So many people will accept what has happened and will know that they have been given a great gift of My grace and My Divine Mercy.

The conversion will be global and on a scale not seen since My crucifixion.

Billions will turn to God as the truth will become clear.

They will know exactly what will happen on Judgment Day and they will know how to save their souls because My love will have enveloped them.

They can become healthy again in mind, body and soul.

My Cross will be the proof of My manifestation of My Divine Mercy promised to mankind for so long. It will be seen in the skies all over the world.

A calm will descend upon all the earth as a result of this act of divine intervention granted to God's children to awaken them from their slumber.

But the fallen angels will attack all of God's children through their devoted army who will refuse My cup of salvation.

So embittered, with hearts of stone and tainted with the stain of Satan, they will fight those who love God.

Their number will be no match for those who follow the truth, yet their hatred will inspire them to plot evil deeds that will destroy this peace and tranquility.

These will orchestrate a plan to convince the world that this event was really a cosmic accident which they will say scientists can prove. Unfortunately, many will subsequently believe this to be the case and many of God's children will fall back into the old sinful lives they once led.

The battle for souls will then begin and it will take some time until it reaches the final confrontation, when My Second Coming will put an end to the corruption.

My dear followers, do not allow these revelations to frighten you.

Instead, prepare for this glorious event and allow your soul to embrace it.

Accept this wondrous divine act to strengthen your resolve and to spread My love further among your family and friends.

Be proud of your relationship with Me, your Jesus, and help Me preserve those souls who will refuse to accept My Mercy.

Go! Get ready! Rejoice, for the time is near!

I love you.

You Jesus
