

DEDICATION OF THE ALTAR OF SACRIFICE

THE PROPHETIC EDICT TO RESTORE THE DAILY SACRIFICES AND REBUILD THE 3RD TEMPLE

The dedication of the Altar of Sacrifice took place adjacent to one of the sections of the Old City wall of Jerusalem. More precisely it was on the southern side of the Old City and just south of the Citadel of David. A stage was set with banners noted the sponsors of the event and the man accoutrements of the Temple furnishings were displayed as replicas, except that of the actual Altar of Sacrifice. Having all of the 7 main accoutrements of the Temple lying in wait signals their eventual home is to come. The Altar of Sacrifice was entirely made up of stone as it was during the time of Solomon's Temple and Herod's Temple. However, the one fashioned during Herod's time was extremely embellished in terms of its width. The Sanhedrin had invited the main 70 Nations of the world to witness this dedication of the Altar of Sacrifice. From the observation noted in the video, it appeared that only a handful of observers were present, no doubt mainly the supporters of such a religious cause. However, Mario Adolfo Bucaro Flores, the Ambassador of Guatemala was a guest of honor at the ceremony. Also present were the Ambassador of Honduras and Moshe Feiglin, head of the Zehut party and a former Member of Knesset. The various Jewish institutes, agencies and organizations contributing to this dedication were granted and given permission by the Jerusalem city authorities to conduct such a dedication, publicly. However, the actual sacrifice of the animal, most notably a lamb was performed outside Jerusalem, but a hind leg was placed thereafter atop the Altar of Sacrifice.

By placing such an 'Burnt Offering' upon the Altar, according to the Mosaic Law, it sanctified the altar and makes it now possible for the eventual Daily Sacrifices to commence. A cadre of Levitical Priests lined up on the stage to make the preliminary preparations. All the Priests were wearing the required Biblical white linen cloth vestature and were barefooted. The fire atop the Altar was lit as a stack of kindling wood was already placed there, although the fire went out several times.

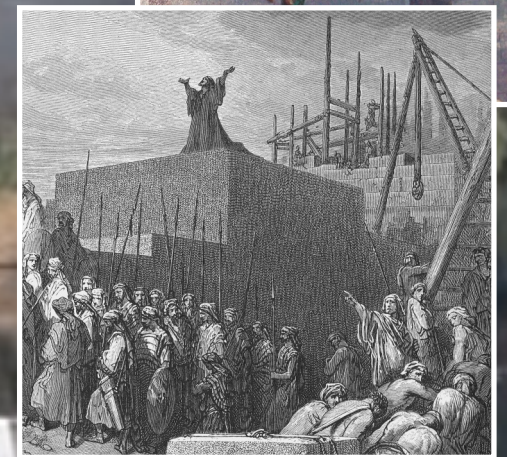

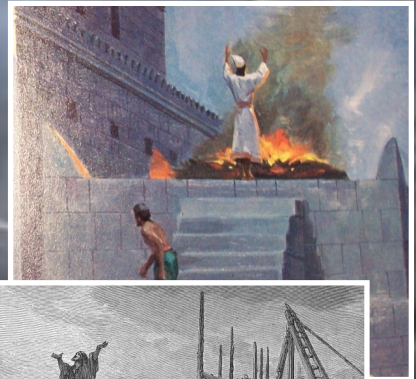

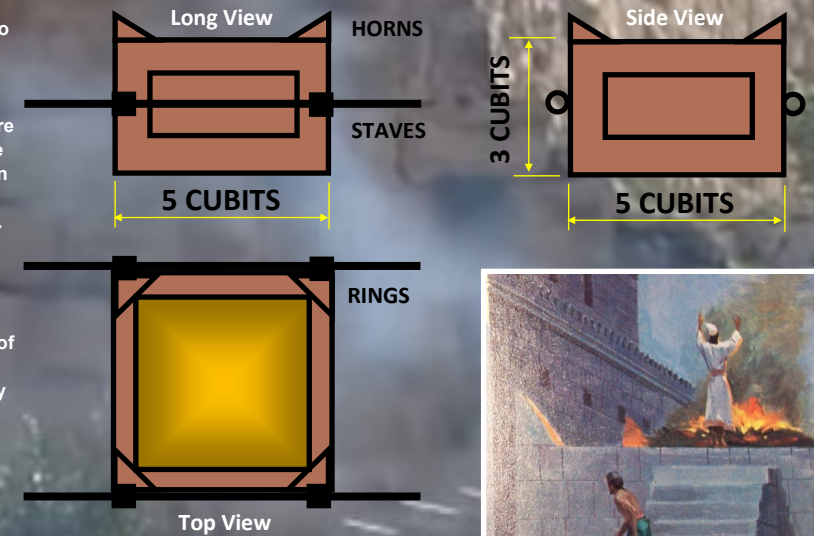

ALTAR OF SACRIFICE

During the Days of Moses.

A spokesperson appeared to be the host and guided the apparently small audience gathered as to the different stages of the dedication were performed. According to the videographer, the dedication ceremony started at 10:30 AM, local time in Jerusalem.

Based on the observation of the Altar of Sacrifice, it appeared the dimensions were a bit larger than that of what Moses was instructed to make as a model given by the Divine Blueprint from YHVH on Mount Sinai.

It appeared that the dimensions were more in keeping with what King Solomon had construction for the Temple in his day. The dedication of the Altar occurred on the last day of Hanukah. Herein lies a direct connection to the rededication of Temple that echoes back to the days of how the Maccabees restored the Temple service.
