

Covenant of Seven Underway

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week; and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

~ Daniel 9:27 KJV

God has a way of doing things in ways we do not anticipate. Like a Monday morning quarterback, after the fact, we can then see his wisdom and begin to understand how every word of His word has been fulfilled. We most certainly live in the last days and watchers are anxiously looking for the fulfillment of this passage of scripture as it will be a clear indication we have entered the time that creation is groaning to bring forth.

The “He” in this passage most certainly is the antichrist. The antichrist is Barak Hussein Obama. He has familial roots in all three of the major religions of the world, Muslim, Christian and Jew. As such, we should have our watch binoculars out and focused in on his actions.

I would like to walk through a few recent events and then revisit the prophetic passage in Daniel.

On April 4th of this year, Passover, the Obama’s hosted their seventh Passover Seder (picture below).

Ref: <http://www.timesofisrael.com/obamas-host-7th-white-house-seder/>

On this occasion Obama likens the exodus and freedom of the former slaves of Israel to the US Civil Rights movement. This movement which started in the 1960's focuses on women's, African American and gay rights. It seemingly hit an end with a 'head wound' on April 4, 1968. Forty seven years later to the day, Obama proclaims we need to continue the work of 'tikkun olam' which means, repairing the world. What he means by this is ushering a new world order where the antichrist rules. It is the three aspects of the civil rights movement that is used in a manipulative way to bring down God's rule and marriage and family. If you turn on the news you can see daily that this deadly head wound has been healed and the beast is devouring God's people.

Seven years from now brings us to 2022. In 2022 I believe that all of the Jewish Feasts will be fulfilled, as well as some other holidays or dates such as Tevet 1, the day Esther was called up to replace Vashti. Twenty two is the number of letters in the Hebrew alphabet, with the last letter being the Tau. The pictograph, or earliest form of the Tau is similar to our "T". This will be the finishing work of the cross by Jesus Christ. So, two thousand years followed by the Word fulfilling his word, every "jot and tittle." I do not want to distract from the focus of this writing which is regarding the covenant of sevens. At the end of this writing I will do a brief overview of the fulfillment of some of the feasts in 2022.

The bible compares the moon to a bride. Adam was taken from the dust of the earth. The sun is the center of our solar system and sustains and gives us life (Jesus). We can learn much from this simple model. When the moon is full and beautiful (bride adorned for her husband) she is behind her husband, but reflecting the light of the sun. She is beautified by the light of Jesus. When the moon is between the earth and the sun, then she is "dark" with no gown and does not have the light of the sun upon her. With this in mind, a blue moon is when two full moons occur in a month (blue moon month). A black moon month is when two new or dark moons occur (black moon month). The former is considered a positive marker, while the latter is negative.

With that understanding, let's take a look at Passover in 2022. The feast that freed the Israelites, and later freed all of mankind from our sins is on April 16th. The first and last day in April is marked by a new or 'dark' moon. This is a marker for the future fulfillment of the following verse:

"And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications; and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as on mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn."

~ Zechariah 12:10 KJV

Israel will be in some dire straits approaching this Passover in 2022. We have some indication of that which I will show you shortly. With their backs against the wall (no pun intended, okay maybe a little bit) Israel will finally come to the realization of who their true savior is. The one who they trusted was in fact the antichrist, while they come to acknowledge the true messiah, Jesus Christ, the King of Glory, whom they had crucified.

Let me show you why I believe Israel will be in dire straits and some further evidence that Obama has set in place a covenant of seven.

In 2015, Shavuot and Pentecost occurred on the same day - May 23rd. Barak Hussein Obama visited Adas Israel Congregation, the largest conservative synagogue in Washington D.C., (pictured below).

Ref: <https://www.whitehouse.gov/the-press-office/2015/05/22/remarks-president-jewish-american-heritage-month>

Obama gave a speech to the Jewish people of this synagogue. I would encourage you to use the link and read it yourself, but here are some notable highlights in his speech:

“Earlier this week, I was actually interviewed by one of your members, Jeff Goldberg. (applause.) And Jeff reminded me that he once called me “the first Jewish President.”

“And as an honorary member of the tribe, not to mention somebody who’s hosted seven White House Seders and been advised by two Jewish chiefs of staff, I can also proudly say that I’m getting the hang of the lingo. But I will not use any of the Yiddish-isms that Rahm Emanuel taught me because I want to be invited back.”

Notice the family tie in, title (first Jewish President) and the mention of the seven Jewish Passover Seders at the White House.

“And think about the landscape of Jewish history. Tomorrow night, the holiday of Shavuot marks the moment Moses received the Torah at Mount Sinai, the first link in a chain of tradition that stretches back thousands of years, and a foundation stone for our civilization.”

“The story of Exodus inspired oppressed people around the world in their own struggles for civil rights. From the founding members of the NAACP to a freedom summer in Mississippi, from women’s rights to gay rights to workers’ rights, Jews took the heart of Biblical edict that we must not oppress a stranger, having been strangers once ourselves.”

Here we are again with the false connection and promotion of Passover and the Exodus to the ‘head wound rebellion’ – the civil rights movement.

“Earlier this year, when we marked the 50th anniversary of the march in Selma, we remembered the iconic images of Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel marching with Dr. King, praying with his feet. To some, it must have seemed strange that a rabbi from Warsaw would take such great risks to stand with a Baptist preacher from Atlanta. But Heschel explained that their cause was one and the same. In his essay, “No Religion is an Island,” he wrote “We must choose between interfaith and inter-nihilism.” Between a shared hope that says together we can shape a brighter future, or a shared cynicism that says our world is simply beyond repair.”

Notice the 50 year (jubilee) reference, Atlanta (Atlantis) and the suggestion of world religion leading to a ‘brighter’ future.

Obama also uses a word that is used philosophically – nihilism. It comes from Latin meaning ‘nothing.’ If you do some study on it you will find conflicting meanings and definitions, however Obama defines his meaning of the word. He talks of the American dream of opportunity for all...

“Around the world, those values compel us to redouble our efforts to protect our planet and to protect the human rights of all who share this planet.”

You see the repeating theme of civil rights (feminism, black and gay), mother earth (climate chaos), and world religion, government and finance. This is a seven headed hydra which will seek to destroy the saints. Obama says if you agree to give me these seven things, I will give you fulfillment.

Continuing...

“It’s particularly important to remember now, given the tumult that is taking place in so many corners of the globe, in one of the world’s most dangerous neighborhoods, those shared values compel us to reaffirm that our enduring friendship with the people of Israel and our unbreakable bonds with the state of Israel cannot be broken (Applause.) Those values compel us to say that our commitment to Israel’s security – and my commitment to Israel’s security – is and always will be unshakeable.”

Here is Obama’s promise to Israel to always protect them. This is a promise he will break, yet they affirm his words with applause.

He goes on to discuss the Iran nuclear deal, the 1967 six day war and then says this regarding peace and a two state solution:

“And it is precisely because I care so deeply about the state of Israel – it’s precisely because, yes, I have high expectations for Israel the same way I have high expectations for the United States of America – that I feel a responsibility to speak out honestly about what I think will lead to long term security and to the preservation of a true democracy in the Jewish homeland. (Applause.) And I believe that’s two state for two peoples, Israel and Palestine, living side by side in peace and security. (Applause.) Just as Israelis built a state in their homeland, Palestinians have a right to be a free people on their land, as well (Applause.)”

“And I’m proud to be a part of this movement, and I’m proud that six ambassadors from Europe are joining us today. And their presence here – our presence together – is a reminder that we are not doomed to repeat the mistakes of the past (Applause.)

Israel and Palestine, side by side in peace. He goes on to say “Our presence together”....that would make seven persons, Obama and the six European ambassadors.

“So I want to close with the story of one more of the many rabbis who came to Selma 50 years ago. A few days after David Teitelbaum arrived to join the protests, he and a colleague were thrown in jail. And they spent a Friday night in custody, singing Adon Olam to the tune of “We Shall Overcome.” And that in and of itself is a profound statement of faith and hope. But what’s wonderful is, is that out of respect many of their fellow protestors began wearing what they called “freedom caps” -- (laughter) -- yarmulkes -- as they marched.

And the day after they were released from prison, Rabbi Teitelbaum watched Dr. King lead a prayer meeting before crossing the Edmund Pettus Bridge. And Dr. King said, “We are like the children of Israel, marching from slavery to freedom.”

That’s what happens when we’re true to our values. It’s not just good for us, but it brings the community together. (Applause.) Tikkun Olam -- it brings the community together and it helps repair the world. It bridges differences that once looked unbridgeable. It creates a future for our children that once seemed unattainable. This congregation -- Jewish American life is a testimony to the capacity to make our values live. But it requires courage. It requires strength. It requires that we speak the truth not just when it’s easy, but when it’s hard.

So may we always remember that our shared heritage makes us stronger, that our roots are intertwined. May we always choose faith over nihilism, and courage over despair, and hope over cynicism and fear. As we walk our own leg of a timeless, sacred march, may we always stand together, here at home and around the world.”

Again we have the reference to the 50 years which is an allusion to ‘jubilee.’ Jubilee is meant to set the captives free. Obama twists this meaning into that of a foundation for the cause of ‘Civil Rights.’

Now that we have gone over this, let's look seven years forward. In 2022 we have Shavuot and Pentecost falling on the same day – June 5th. This is 55 years to the day that the “Six day war started” which returned Jerusalem to Israel. Jerusalem is related to the ‘bride’ in the bible and here is the gematria:

55 = All, Everything = Consummation, End = Bride, Spouse = Walk = By the hand of Moses (Ord) = The Light (acc) (Ord) = The Statutes (Ord) = Day of the LORD (Ord) = Move, Slip = Thief, Steal

If I were filling in the blanks here, I would say that from the time that we see the influential Jews in their synagogue applauding and accepting the antichrist's affirmation for peace and protection things have gotten worse. As I had detailed earlier, on or before Passover they will realize in the nick of time that Jesus is their true Messiah, and YHWH will miraculously save them and they shall fully have Jerusalem as their own by overcoming the antichrist and his forces. All the way back to the time of Moses, when they should have married YHWH on Shavout, they finally become the bride, 55 years to the day after the initial capture of Jerusalem during the six day war.

As you can see in the Tau year (22) after 2,000 years have passed I have detailed the fulfillment of the first four feasts. Jesus fulfilled the first three and approximately 2022 years later they have accepted Him. Then during Shavuot YHWH returns Jerusalem in full to Israel by miraculously saving them.

I would like to take a look with you at the Iran peace agreement. This agreement came to fruition on July 14, 2015 (a great many things of significance come to be in the month of July for the United States). It was between Iran and the P5+1. The P5 are the five world powers, the United Kingdom, France, Russia, China and the United States. These countries are considered the victors of WW II. The +1 country is Germany. So, we have 6 nations making an accord with Iran. A seven nation pact.

This is the logo of the nuclear program of Iran (Persia)

This looks like the ‘all seeing eye’ we see so regularly associated with the plans of the illuminati.

I have not studied the agreement and this is not a political commentary, so I will just go to taking a look at the 1,260 days and 2,520 (3 and a half and seven biblical years respectively).

If we add 1,260 days from Tuesday July 14, 2015 we land on Tuesday December 25, 2018.

There are many things of significance here. First of all, both days are Tuesday. This day is ‘Mars’ and war day (what the day Tuesday is named after). If you haven't noticed, the antichrist has something in store for Mars. In Satan's first rebellion with YHWH planet Rahab was destroyed (which is an asteroid belt in our solar system) and Mars was also decimated. I believe that after this battle was done, Satan's response to God was an admission that YHWH was stronger, but he countered with a claim that still didn't make YHWH right. It was sometime after this that God set up the Garden of Eden with Adam and Eve, creations a ‘little lower than the angels.’ He would accomplish His purpose through mankind which is weaker than Satan and his rebellious horde.

The second obvious thing is that this is Christmas Day. While Christians celebrate that this is Jesus' birth, it is also a few days after winter solstice which is a pagan celebration for the sun deity dying and rising again. While I could write quite a bit here on this subject, I am going to hold off on this writing and stay on topic.

If we add the complete 2,520 days (we just discussed the midpoint at 1,260 days which landed on Christmas 2018), we land on June 7, 2022. This is a second marker regarding the 55th anniversary of the capture of Jerusalem. The first was seven Shavuot's from the Washington D.C. Synagogue agreement I detailed earlier (June 5th 2022 Shavuot and the anniversary of the start of the war). We now have a second timeline pointing to the same event (this one pointing to the anniversary of the capture of Jerusalem).

Here is another date related to this Iran Nuclear agreement. It was created on July 14, and the official adoption is October 18, 2015. If we add 280 (40 X 7 weeks, gestation period) we end up on July 23, 2016. This date is Tammuz 17 and the date where Israel worshipped the golden calf while they were waiting for the return of Moses from Mount Sinai. If you add 1260 or 1290 days to this date it lands on seemingly insignificant dates in 2020. The only thing I would mention is that this is the target of the Mars mission, and this may link to the date of a future event.

So let's take another look at the passage in Daniel:

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week; and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

~ Daniel 9:27 KJV

If we remember this is a translation from Hebrew to English which can be a work in progress. This is especially true when we have a presupposed meaning in mind. I am not a Hebrew scholar, but I'm going to give this a shot to walk through this translation in comparing it with what we now know about the antichrist's actions. I've taken each word and looked it up in the 'Strong's' concordance with an attempt to apply it to what has happened in regards to Obama:

Gabar = prevail, act insolently

Beriyth = agreement man to man

Rab = prince or rank (no Hebrew word for President when this was written)

Echad = one after another

Shabuwa = seven

Chetsiy = midnight (used in Exodus 12:29, Passover)

Shabuwa = Feast of Weeks (Shavuot)

Zebach = Passover

Minchah = meat offering (Seder)

Shabath = fail to keep Sabbath

Kanaph = wing or quarter of a building

Shiqquwts = abomination (Obama-nation)

Shamem = Edomite (from Esau, red)

Kalah = until consummation, end *

Charats = determined

Nathak = pouring

Shamem = desolations

* Hebrew gematria for this is 55. I wrote earlier on how seven years lands on the 55th anniversary of the 1967 capture of Jerusalem.

Utilizing both the Strong's interpretation above and the observed information of the Antichrist, here is a rough translation:

In arrogance the Prince (President) will make an agreement in person on the Feast of Weeks after having completed seven Passover Seders in the wing of the wing of a building (White House). This Edomite ruler will nullify the offering as an abomination (Obama-nation) until the end of the bowls of wrath are poured out.

I have a lot more information to share, Rapture dates along with the day I believe the antichrist will declare himself god. Also, the fulfillment of the fall feasts and other dates in 2022. I will cover these things in a subsequent writing.

Maranatha,

Tony Els
